

New Kena Cubed™ Contributor!

- By Ramón Bannister

Kena Cubed™ is happy to announce the addition of an author/contributor to its roster! We are thankful to have him. He has his own blog and we want him to be as successful as Kena Cubed™. Please help us in welcoming Harvey the Turtle and his newly launched blog, harveytheturtle.com! Harvey will occasionally offer his perspective on Kena Cubed™. Harvey, we wish you the best for your own blog, and thank you for being a part of our team!
